

Greetings

It's time for the Hoh Watershed Adventure!

This year we will be offering a fun week of activities during the day, including a half day of rafting and one night of optional overnight camping during the week of July 10-14th.

Applications are available on the Hoh Tribe's website and at the Hoh Tribal Administration Building front desk. The application deadline is July 5th and space is limited to 40 participants on a first come first served basis.