

Upcoming Events at the Hoh Tribal Library

Activities are open to all ages~children through adults

Tuesday, June 26, 1:00 pm Forks Ambulance and Otter Pops

Come to the Library and meet some of the Forks Ambulance Crew and take a tour of the ambulance. Finish up the visit enjoying an Otter Pop-the perfect summer treat.

Thursday, June 28, 3:00 pm C is for Cupcakes!

Come to the Library and read stories about cupcakes and decorate one to eat!

Tuesday, July 3, 1:00 4th of July Crafts

Come to the Library and make yourself a necklace or bracelet to wear tomorrow and a handprint flag you can wave at the parade!

Tuesday, July 10 1:00 pm John Hunter-Forks High School-Hunting for Water Bears

Come to the Library and learn how to use a Foldscope, a new type of pocket-size microscope and search for Tardigrades, the toughest animal in the world!

Thursday July 12, 1:00 pm DIY Crafts

A variety of art supplies will be on hand to make and take a masterpiece you create!

Tuesday, July 17, 1:00 Mary Anne Early-Copper Rubbing

Come to the Library to learn the technique of Copper Rubbing and make something to take home!

Thursday, July 19, 1:00 Pajama Day at the Library

Come to the Library in you pajamas and even bring a stuffed animal friend. Listen to bedtime stories and have a snack!

Tuesday, July 24, 1:00 pm Pastor Pam Hunter-Japanese Paper Marbling

Come to the Library to learn the technique of Japanese Paper Marbling and make something to take home!

Tuesday July 31, 1:00 DIY Crafts

A variety of art supplies will be on hand to make and take a masterpiece you create!

Come spend some time with us this summer!